Ooo Numb. 1616.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, April 19. 1707.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 26.

Malaga, March 30.

THE Enemy have reinforc'd the Garriſon of Gibraltar to 2000 Men, who 'tis apprehended will make Excurſions into the Country. There has been a great Inſurrection in Grenada for King Charles, but the Governour found Means to ſuppreſs it; and has caus'd ſeveral Perſons of Quality who were reputed to be well-affected to the Houſe of Auſtria, to be taken up and impriſon'd. Strict Search is made here after all Strangers, and the Guards of the Gates are doubled.

Cuenza, April 2. The Armies on the Frontier of Valencia continue in their former Poſts; they have both made ſeveral Motions, but 'twas only to extend the Troops for the Convenience of forraging. The Expectation of a Battle between them leſſens. Two Days ago 6000 Recruits for the French Foot march'd through this Place for our Army; but they left above 500 ſick in our Hoſpitals. To Day arriv'd from Madrid the Regiments of Foot of Palencia, Salamanca, and one of Marines, each of 400 Men. They are to reſt here 2 Days, and then proceed to Albacette. A Train of Artillery and Stores of Ammunition, are brought hither for our Army.

Madrid, April 7. Yeſterday Don Alonſo de Parama ſet out for Breſt. 'Tis advis'd from Cadix, that good Part of the Lading of the Regiſter Ship which came from new Spain and was ſunk turning in to San Lucar, is fiſh'd up, and that Men are at work to recover the reſt. The Foot-Guards are order'd to paſs in Review before the King the 18th Inſtant. The Duke of Orleans is expected here in 5 or 6 Days. A Courier from the Duke of Berwick has brought an Account, that the Enemy are ſtill encamp'd between Monarcotta and Alicant, and our Army lies extended from Albacette to Linello, where the Recruits for the French Troops, and a great Convoy of Ammunition with a Train of 20 or 25 Cannon, under a ſufficient Guard, are expected the 10th Inſtant from Cuenza. 'Tis ſaid our King preſſes the Court of France, to take neceſſary Care to keep the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily. The Marquis de Bay has given Order for ſtrengthening Salamanca and Zamorra with all Expedition, to cover Caſtile which lies open on that ſide towards Portugal. Prince Tſerclaes de Tilly has ſent the King an Account, that he has a Body of 10000 Men ready to march into Arragon, on the firſt Order from his Majeſty. 'Tis ſaid he is ſent for hither to aſſiſt at a Council of War. From Saragoſſa 'tis advis'd, that King Charles with ſome of his General Officers is gone to Barcelona, to be preſent in the Aſſembly of the States of Catalonia, which was to be open'd the 24th of laſt Month.

Perpignan, April 12. The 7th Inſtant the Duke de Noailles arriv'd here, and was ſaluted with a triple Diſcharge of our Artillery. The next Day all the Troops had Order given them to march; and are at preſent in Motion towards Tuyro between the Teth and Tech, where the Rendezvous is appointed. They conſiſt of 19 Battallions moſt of them new, and 12 Squadrons. 'Tis not certainly known what Enterprize they will go upon; but Bakers being ſent to the French Cerdagne to get Bread made, 'tis conjectur'd they will march towards Arragon. 'Tis advis'd from Barcelona, that King Charles arriv'd there the 23d paſt; that the States of Catalonia have voted him a Supply of Money for raiſing 4 new Regiments of Foot, and 1 of Horſe; and that thoſe Levies are already begun.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated April 26.

Turin, April 4. The French have not only poſſeſs'd themſelves of Barcelonetta, but ſent 12 Battallions thither to ſtrengthen that Paſs, and hinder the Duke of Savoy from breaking into Dauphine. Letters from Oneglia tell us, that an Engliſh Man of War commanded by the Earl of Peterborow's Son, having maintain'd a long and obſtinate Fight with 4 French Men of War, run his Ship aſhore at Vintimiglia; where he has ſav'd Part of her Lading, particularly a good Quantity of Ammunition, and 6 fine Spaniſh Horſes, ſent as a Preſent to our Duke by the King of Spain. The People of the Valley of Luceern have ſent to acquaint his Royal Highneſs, that they will attend him this Campaign into France with 4000 Men. 'Tis advis'd from Rome, that the Pope takes it very ill, that the Emperour and the King of France have given him no Account of the Treaty made between them in Lombardy.

Letters from Switzerland ſay ſome Letters from France advis'd, that the Inſurrection in Quercy began, on Occaſion of a Prieſt's marrying a Couple tho' the Bridegroom could not afford to pay the Tax on Marriages; whereupon the Farmer of the Tax having complain'd to the Intendant, he caus'd the Prieſt and the new married Man to be ſiez'd and impriſon'd: But the People being enrag'd at ſo hard a Proceeding, broke open the Priſon and ſet them at Liberty; and from this beginning the Inſurrection grew.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 26.

Spires, April 19. The Preparations of War made in the Places on the Upper Rhine by the Allies, are very great: But the Army of the Empire will not take the Field before the End of May. The Enemy are not idle on their ſide, but cauſe their Troops to draw to the Lauter, to cover their Lines. If the Princes of the Empire do but furniſh their Contingents in time, we may reckon on a ſucceſsful Campaign on this ſide; for according to the unanimous Report of all the Deſerters, the Enemy's Army will not be above 25000 Men ſtrong, the King of France having order'd his main Forces to Spain and the Netherlands, deſigning to make his beſt Efforts this Campaign in thoſe Countries.

Paris, April 22. The Marſhal de Villars continues here ſtill, and 'tis likely will not ſet out for Strasbourg till after Eaſter Holidays. Yeſterday an Expreſs arriv'd at Court from Montauban, with a Confirmation that the Inſurrection in the Country thereabouts is as good as ſuppreſs'd; yet 'tis reported the King has directed, that 1500 Men of the Troops which are order'd from Dauphine to Spain, march to Perigord, to reinforce the Forces there, and be ready to be employ'd if need ſhould be. The laſt Letters from Madrid of the 7th Inſtant, ſay the Armies cannot yet undertake any Enterprize, becauſe the great Rains have made ſome little Rivers overflow, which has rendred the Roads impracticable for Cannon. The Queen of Spain is 6 Months gone with Child.

From the Paris Gazette, dated April 23.

Paris, April 23. They write from Provence the 3d Inſtant, that the Count de Villars being at Sea with 4 Men of War, and falling in with 3 Engliſh Men of War, attack'd them and forc'd the biggeſt of them call'd the Reſolution, carrying 72 Guns to run aſhore near Vintimiglia on the Coaſt of Genoa, where ſhe was burnt by her own Crew: The other two made their Eſcape.

They write from Mons, that the 4th Inſtant, the Elector of Bavaria, accompanied by ſome General Officers,

Officers, view'd the new Line made this Winter, which extends from Charleroy to Mons, and found it in a very good Condition.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 26.

Bruſſels, March 24. The Field-Marſhal M. d'Auverquerque arriv'd here the 22d Inſtant, was receiv'd with a Salvo of our Cannon, and has been complimented by our Magiſtrates and the General Officers that are here. His Excellency has ſent Order to all the Troops (which are drawing this Way) to hold themſelves in ſuch Readyneſs, that they may take the Field at the firſt Notice; but 'tis thought the Army will not be form'd till the Duke of Marlborough arrives. From the Frontiers 'tis advis'd, that the Duke of Vendome having had a Conference with the Elector of Bavaria at Mons, and view'd the Magazines there and in other Places, is return'd to Liſle. The French continue to work diligently on their Lines, and Letters from Tournay tell us all their Troops are to draw together between that Place and Liſle by the 5th of May.

Hague, April 26. Laſt Saturday and Yeſterday Conferences were held about the taking the Saxon Troops into the Service of England and Holland, Mr. Stepney aſſiſted at thoſe Conferences, and the Treaty was finiſh'd Yeſterday. We are told the Number of thoſe Troops agreed for, is but 3000 and odd hundred Foot, and 1100 Horſe. This little Number in reſpect of what was firſt offer'd by King Auguſtus, and certain other Circumſtances, have given ſome Ground to a Conjecture that the Duke of Marlborough is to take into Service ſome of the King of Sweden's Troops. On Saturday laſt an Aide de Camp to Count Noyelles arriv'd here, and reports that King Charles's Affairs in Spain have a very good Aſpect. This Officer came from Barcelona the 29th of March; he was on board the Reſolution that was run aſhore at Vintimiglia. He left at Barcelona his Catholick Majeſty and the Count de Noyelles; who arriv'd there the 24th. The Ambaſſador of Muſcovy is on his Departure from hence for Rotterdam, in order to embark for England. The Letters from Italy bring nothing yet concerning the Affair of Munſter. The Exchange of Priſoners in Lombardy is ſuſpended, upon the Difficulties made by the French to exchange the young Count of Soiſſons for a Brigadier: They pretend likewiſe that the Marquis de Parelle, ought to be reckon'd their Priſoner, tho' he was reſcued by a Party which defeated thoſe who took him. 'Tis advis'd from the Upper Rhine, that the Enemy deſign to demoliſh Haguenau and Biſchweiler, and the States have Intelligence, that the Marſhal de Villars will not have above 14000 Men on that ſide.
